SmartSource® to Serve as Luxe Exhibit Sponsor, Presenter and Exhibitor (Booth #228) at Legalweek NYC

Hauppauge, NY...

SmartSource®, an ABCOM Technology Group company, one of the nation's leading technology solutions providers, will be serving as a Luxe Exhibit Sponsor at Legalweek NYC, March 8-11, 2022, at the New York Hilton Midtown.

SmartSource, a premier provider of IT equipment rental and security solutions for legal firms and legal staffing clients, will also be exhibiting at booth #228. SmartSource Sales Director, Jeremy Lyon, will be the speaker at a Lite Stage Session on March 9, from 10:30 AM - 10:50 AM, on the topic of "How to keep your data safe and your team focused on the WIN."

"We have a decades-long tradition of being a valuable resource to the legal community," said SmartSource Chief Executive Officer Ali Vafa. "Our team members understand the critical nature of legal services and the urgency associated with data protection. By delivering a suite of end-to-end solutions and services, we can effectively help our legal clients meet their needs in real time – from the war room to the courtroom, from eDiscovery to trial."

SmartSource's comprehensive offerings to law firms and legal staffing companies include customized technology solutions, IT and office equipment rentals, 24/7 x 365 Help Desk Support, proactive System Monitoring and Maintenance, Advanced Endpoint Security, Business Continuity, and Disaster Recovery Services.

In his educational session at Legalweek NYC, Lyon will discuss the role of a solid IT roadmap in keeping data safe from cyber threats. He will explain the importance of ensuring that hardware procured from third parties is configured correctly and securely, and how an experienced Managed IT Services Provider can help promote cyber security with ongoing IT system monitoring, vulnerability assessments and remediation.

"For law firms, it is critical that their IT systems offer a high level of reliability, security and performance to keep confidential data safe and secure and staff able to meet the rigors of their roles," stated Lyon. "As a resource to law firms and legal staffing firms, we understand the importance of offering leading-edge solutions backed by a team of highly qualified technology specialists who can configure and deploy high-performance solutions quickly and effectively."

Legalweek NYC is one of the leading events for the legal profession, drawing over 8,000 registered attendees from over 36 nations. Attendees include in-house counsel, law firm partners, legal professionals and staffing firms. The conference focuses on emerging trends, including legal automation, eDiscovery, operations, business strategies, litigation, data science, data privacy, cyber security, alternative legal services, and practice management.
