

STOP

Wasting Time.
Wasting Money.
Reading Contracts.

Lawyers spend more time than ever drafting and reviewing contracts.

They didn't go to law school for this.

Ballooning workloads, stress, and burnout = "Attrition risk is blinking red."

39% experience severe stress and burnout

81% lack staffing to get work done sufficiently

54% low job satisfaction

Time is Money

Your Legal team should work on more strategic initiatives

STOP READING CONTRACTS.

Shift from manual to automated contract management

Manual Contracting Processes

Devote limited team resources to categorizing, labeling, and storing contracts

Find contracts and isolate legal and business terms within contracts through manual search efforts

Resolve simple contract-related questions with unnecessary back-and-forth between departments

VS.

Contract Intelligence

Automatically store and analyze up to 450k contracts per day, auto-tagging key terms for tracking

Track, visualize, and report on any legal or business term of interest with out-of-the-box and custom AI for tagging

Empower business users with conversational AI to turn plain-language questions into quick answers, with guardrails
